

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, it's acceptable of course, but I was rather...(interruption)

SENATOR DECAMP: If you had a better idea?

SPEAKER NICHOL: ...like April fifteenth which is adjournment date.

SENATOR DECAMP: You got it.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay.

SENATOR DECAMP: You got it.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All right. If you don't intend to take it up this year is what I am saying. All right...

SENATOR DECAMP: My theory is, there is about a 30 to 40 percent chance that some major developments will trigger groups that now supposedly oppose it into saying, oh, gosh, now we need it and, therefore, I would like it alive just in case.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Without objection, so ordered. Okay. Thank you, Senator DeCamp. Move on to LB 325.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 325 is a bill offered by Senator Goodrich. (Read.) The bill was read on January 17, referred to the Retirement Committee for hearing, was advanced to General File. There are Retirement Committee amendments pending.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Harris, please, on the committee amendments.

SENATOR HARRIS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I would like for you all to pay attention because it's a fairly complicated bill. The amendment that the committee has proposed itself is not real complicated. It simply sets up a system that will make sure that a member of the system who terminates or leaves before his or her retirement date and then becomes a state employee within five years after the termination date or within an amount of time equal to the employee's original length of service, whichever is less, shall be reenrolled in the Retirement System within 60 days under policies established by the board. And then
